Growing in ^{thanks} Giving

Welcome to Shalimar UMC

We are so glad you've chosen to worship with us this week! Hearing assistance devices are available for the Sanctuary. Please see an usher to obtain these aids.

Enjoy fellowship, coffee, and snacks in the Family Life Center Gym between worship services.

Our Vision

Christ-centered, multigenerational, family and community relevant ministries through worship, discipleship, and mission.

Our Mission

REACH, TEACH, and SEND

We REACH out to our congregation, community, and the world to TEACH the word of God as provided in the Holy Scripture, and SEND our members and missionaries to be witnesses to God's grace and His promise of eternal life to us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Worship Services

Break Free

Our Saturday evening service begins at 6:00 pm in the Family Life Center opening with a gathering and fellowship time at 5:30 pm. This transformational service involves modern music, multimedia, and a style of preaching that is practical and participatory.

Traditions

At 8:00 and 11:00 am Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we celebrate through the rich traditions of our faith such as hymns led by organ and piano, seasonal vestments, and traditional Methodist liturgy. Our Chancel Choir leads the 11:00 service.

Connect

At 9:30 Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we engage in a four-fold service of gathering praise, service of the Word, Holy Communion with candle stations for prayer, and sending forth. The music is a blend of contemporary praise songs and upbeat hymns.

Freedom

At 11:07 Sunday mornings in the Family Life Center Gym we worship through modern music, multimedia, and a teaching style message in a non-traditional atmosphere. We come to God as we are to experience the freedom of not having to stay that way.

Philip's Focus

“An Accidental Conversation”

We are asking our congregation to prayerfully consider their financial commitments for the year 2018. As we do, I would like to share a real story and an imaginary story. This story may be helpful as we consider our commitment for 2018.

In another church and another time, a very successful business man, who was also church treasurer, and I were talking about giving to the church. He asked me what I thought might increase our overall church giving to the Lord? He was really curious about my honest thoughts. We talked about several things and then I just moved into an accidental conversation.

Off the cuff I shared, “First of all, I have noticed people start giving a certain amount and get stuck on that same amount year after year. As a result, there is no real thought of tithing or growing toward tithing rather just a nice even amount.” Later in the conversation, I said, “Some people become complacent and assume the church is glad to receive whatever they give. Secondly, some people always think someone else needs to hear the message of giving more than he/she and I have never understood this conclusion.”

After we had talked a few more minutes, he completely surprised me. He looked me in the eye and said, “You know I have done those things. I have become comfortable giving the same amount and always thought someone else needed to grow in their giving.” As he finished his comments he then said, “I’m able to give more and I am increasing my commitment this year!” He did. As he started giving more, others in the church did too. Many started moving to tithing and they were very happy and blessed in this decision.

This conversation in another church was accidental but seemed divinely appointed. This week I started imagining if someone from Shalimar came and we started talking about giving...what would I say? Well let’s just imagine I do have the conversation with a successful man named Xavier.

Imagine, Xavier walks into my office and asks, “What should I give to Shalimar UMC this year?” I would probably say, “I’m glad you asked.” Then he might say, “Do you get this question a lot?” I would then chuckle and say, “No, not much but since you asked...”

“First of all, we do not give just for the benefit of Shalimar UMC. We give to the Lord through the Church. Once we give, the Lord uses what we give in ways we can see and ways we cannot see; but we give to the Lord through the church.” Wanting me to get to the point Xavier asks, “How much should I give then?” I would pick up one of the Bible’s on my desk and start turning the pages to Malachi 3:8-10 and read, “Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house; thereby put me to the test, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.” I would then say, “This is one passage in the Bible where the Lord says ‘test me’ and offers to open the doors of Heaven and offer an overflow of blessing.”

Xavier is intrigued by the passage and asks, "What is a full tithe?" After taking a sip of coffee, I would say, "Tithing is the Biblical standard of the first 10% of all that God blesses us with each year." Moving the chair a bit he says, "How can I do that? For after all I have a mortgage, cars, bills, and debt?" I would pause a moment and then say, "Yes, tithers have those too. The 'HOW' is determined with trusting God that what you have is enough and when we give to God first, amazingly financial priorities are even more in order. Tithing will lead to better financial accountability not less. Not sure how to explain it, but tithing helps the overall financial picture and does not take away."

After a pause Xavier says, "My income is not that much. I cannot give like those who are better off than me." Again, I would also pause and say softly, "Thanks for sharing that concern. You know, tithing is not about a certain amount; it is giving 10% of what we actually make. A person who tithes $3000 off of making $30,000 a year tithes just as much as a person who gives $30,000 off of $300,000 a year. A tithe is not about the amount but a percentage."

Xavier gets quiet for a moment and to break the silence I say, "You did not ask but in God's view a 'widow's mite' given sacrificially is more valuable than a person blessed with wealth who gives a large gift that costs them virtually nothing in their overall financial abundance. God's economy is different."

Xavier then says, dropping his voice, "I need to go soon but I have one more question." Squirming in the chair a bit he hesitates like the question is awkward. I sense he wants to say something and I say, "Go ahead, what is your question?" "Well I'm just curious, "How much do you and Karen give to God through Shalimar UMC?"

"Oh, I see why you were hesitant; but thank you for asking and I don't mind. The answer is we seek to honor the Lord with all He has blessed us with in good financial times and challenging ones. We give over 10% of our combined income to the Lord through Shalimar. We tithe off of what she makes as a teacher and what I make as pastor."

As Xavier prepares to leave, he says he is going to give tithing some thought and prayer. As he is walking down the hall, I remember something I forgot to say earlier as I walk to catch him before he leaves. "Xavier, I forgot the most important part, tithing will help you grow closer to the Lord, bless you, and bless others... you will not regret it." Xavier leaves and ninety days later he makes it a point to speak to me and says, "I began tithing and I am blessed!" He also has a grin on his face.

This week we are asking everyone to prayerfully submit their giving to the Lord this year. As far as I know there is no one named Xavier in our congregation; but I do believe if we tithe to the Lord we will be blessed! Thank you for giving to the Lord!

Shalom,
Philip

This Week's Guide for Groups & Individuals

What are you thankful for this year? I read an article a couple of weeks ago talking about the importance in us showing gratitude. Gratitude has been scientifically proven to improve our lives physically and emotionally.

Thanksgiving is almost here. Many families have a tradition of sharing one thing each person is thankful for. Pastor Philip shared the other day that he makes it a spiritual practice to write down 100 or more things from the past year he's grateful for.

The words of Jeremiah in Lamentations 3:22-23 are of thankfulness. He is thankful for God's continued provision in his life. No matter what, every day God is with him. This week, take some time to sit down and think about how God has provided for you in the past week, month, and year and thank him for his continued provision.

Thoughts to Ponder:

- 1) What are things that God does to provide for me that I take for granted?
- 2) How can I take Jeremiah's words to heart?
- 3) What can I do to honor all that God has done in my life this past year?

Visit faithparry.com for more thoughts.

Pastor Faith is starting a Life Group for couples with kids, the week after Thanksgiving. This will be for four weeks focusing on the Sermon Series, Advent Conspiracy. This group will meet in Faith's home. If you are interested please email faith@shalimar-umc.org for further information.

SANTA'S WORKSHOP

A SUMC Local Missions, Outreach Event

December 9th
9 am to 12 pm

Sharing God's Love

What is Santa's Workshop?

In lieu of an Angel Tree, we are sponsoring Santa's Workshop for children who are participants in our After School Program, SUMC Bus Ministry, and Faith Backpacks programs. We invite the community parents we serve to shop for affordable Christmas gifts for their children. The Family Life Center will be transformed into Santa's Workshop for the parents to shop and have gifts wrapped. Gifts will be priced for just a couple dollars so parents can afford to give Christmas to their children instead of gifts coming from strangers or an agency. Proceeds will go towards purchasing Christmas Day Meals for each family.

We need Donations!

Donations can be made by way of the Santa's Workshop Tree located in the Family Life Center and in the Sanctuary. What a great opportunity to teach children the gift of giving and sharing with the less fortunate.

Donation Info

Donation drop-off locations are the church office, Monday—Thursday, 8 am-4 pm and Friday, 8 am-12 pm or Sundays under the Santa Workshop trees. All donations need to be dropped-off before Wednesday, November 29th.

Volunteers

Volunteers are needed the day of the event for set up and as personal shoppers for the families.
